

Hasselt, 3rd of October 2022

Dear Madam/Sir,

As co-author of the following paper:

Work, labour and action: the role of participatory design in (re)activating the political dimension of work, published in PDC '18: Proceedings of the 15th Participatory Design Conference: Full Papers - Volume 1 ISBN

978-1-4503-6371-6 DOI (Digital Object Identifier)

<https://dx.doi.org/10.1145/3210586.3210599>

Codice Web of Science

WOS:000546053000001

ISBN

978-1-4503-6371-6

I hereby certify that Virginia Tassinari, as one of the co-authors of this paper, has significantly contributed to the making of this paper, supporting its theoretical framework (see Arendt's concepts of work, labour and action articulated in The Human Condition) and its potential value for the practices of participatory design. In detail, she has been mainly contributing to the sections 1, 4, 5 and 5.1 and 5.3 and 7

Kind regards,

A handwritten signature in black ink, consisting of a stylized, cursive 'L' followed by a series of loops and a final horizontal stroke.

Liesbeth Huybrechts