3º Edición "Antológica"

Ceremonia 4 de Mayo, 12 h UYT (-3 GMT)

Anilla Cultural UY

Dear Alfredo M. Ronchi,

The e-Culture awards and acknowledgements arise in the context of the Anilla Cultural Latinoamérica-Europa in Uruguay, with the aim of promoting collaborative and co-creative work in advanced internet networks in the cultural field in art, science, technology and society.

For this edition we return to the founding and pioneering principles of the Ring, under the motto "Everybody knows something, nobody knows everything" (Juan Insua, CCCB) the award on this occasion honours all those who have contributed to the Ring during the period of celebration for the more than 10 years of its creation.

On this occasion, three "Pioneers" categories were established, rewarding figures who have played this role in different areas of knowledge and who have contributed to society for its improvement. There are also the categories of "Acknowledgements" and "Acknowledgements" for different contributions and support to projects and programmes of Anilla Cultural UY and its global networks, locally, regionally and globally. Without losing sight of the future, a special section has been established for "Future Projects".

For this reason, we consider this edition to be "anthological" in its quantity and quality of distinguished persons and institutions. The online award ceremony has a high symbolic value both inside and outside the Cultural Ring.

During the online Award Ceremony, the winners will be announced. So, we invite you to join us on the 4th of May 2023, from 12h UYT (-3GMT), you can connect in a virtual room with your families, loved ones, colleagues, etc., to enjoy the event. And also, if you like, you can call on social networks to follow the live broadcast (Facebook & YouTube).

We are very grateful for your reception of the award, which honours us and because we are building this trajectory together.

Yours sincerely,

Delma Rodriguez Morales

Background to the e-Culture Awards

The first edition of the award was organised on 20 November 2018 and was held at the closing of a face-to-face and online event, from the Sala Delmira Agustini of the Teatro Solís in the city of Montevideo, Uruguay (recordings in Spanish and English).

In the second edition, awards are given to people who have collaborated in an extraordinary way for the development of Co-creation Lab (2019-2020) of Anilla Cultural, under the slogan "Co-creation crossing continents through the internet". In the same line of action, awards are given to national and foreign institutions that collaborate in different ways with Co-creation Lab. There were two very special categories, called "Trajectories" and "Promises". Each edition has its own criteria and guidelines and profiles that are shaped by the networking (recordings in Spanish and English).
