Results of the Via dei Fori Imperiali of Rome competition

Three proposals have won ex aequo in the Via dei Fori Imperiali call for ideas – of the 14th edition of the Piranesi Prix de Rome – organized by Pier Federico Callari, director of the Accademia Adrianea di Architettura e Archeologia de Roma. The projects presented to the competition were carried out by teams made up of an architecture office and a group of students coordinated by a university professor. The winning teams were David Chipperfield Architects + Alexander Schwarz (Universität Stuttgart), 2TR Architettura/Ricardo Petrachi + Luigi Franciosini (Università Roma Tre), and Studio Valle + Franco Purini (Università la Sapienza).

Among the special mentions, two went to Spanish studios: Paredes Pedrosa Arquitectos with Fabio Fabbrizzi (Università di Firenze), and Guillermo Vázquez Consuegra with Carmen Andriani (Università di Genova).

AV Monographs

analyzes in each issue a theme related to a city, a country, a tendency or an architect, with articles by leading specialists complemented by commentary on works and projects illustrated in detail. Published bilingually, with Spanish and English texts placed side by side.

Arquitectura Viva

covers current topics, taking stock of recent trends in set sections: cover story, works and projects, art and culture, books, technique and innovation. From 2013 on, monthly and bilingual, with Spanish and English texts printed side by side.

is the third member of the AV family: a bilingual publication essentially focussed on design projects (with special attention on competitions and construction details), heretofore only laterally dealt with in the other two magazines.
