

Anipemza. The Birth of Interest on a Forgotten Extraordinary Fragile Site in Armenia

Authors Authors and affiliations

- Francesco Augelli

- Francesco Augelli

  - 1

  - Email author

1. 1.DASTUPolitecnico di MilanoMilanItaly

Chapter

First Online: 13 November 2020

Part of the SpringerBriefs in Applied Sciences and Technology book series (BRIEFSAPPLSCIENCES)

Abstract

Anipemza represent a unique study case in Armenia because of a singular settlement rich of history and an interesting architectural, environmental and land-landscape example. This book aims to describe, step by step, the reconstruction of the historical period when the village was settled and the life of the village, its values' definition and the consequent urgent necessity of preservation intervention and revitalization.

Keywords

Armenia Anipemza village Yereruyk Basilica Architectural preservation Adaptive reuse Fragile territory

Notes

Acknowledgements

We wish to thank, for their kindness and availability, the Mayor of Anipemza Dr. Harutyun Tarlanyan, the Municipality leading specialist accountant Mr. Arsen Davdyan, all the wonderful people of Anipemza. Also, many thanks to Ing. Artin Muradian and Ing. Laura Yeghiyan and specially Arch. Arin Khachatourian Saradehi and her sister Arch. Lousineh Khachatourian Saradehi and Marco Germi.

Special thanks to Angelo Rossi who decided not to participate in the publication of this book due to lack of time but that for us authors is ideally co-author of the text.

References

1. 1.

Augelli F (2014) An international multidisciplinary cross-cultural cooperation project-the master's organized near YSUAC: sharing culture and knowledge. In: Casnati G (ed) The Politecnico di Milano in Armenia. An Italian ministry of foreign affairs project for restoration training and support to local institutions for the preservation and conservation of Armenian Heritage, pp 77–89. OEMME EDIZIONI, Venezia Google Scholar

2. 2.

Augelli F, Khachatourian Saradehi A, Khachatourian Saradehi L (2015) Anipemza: from genocide orphans' village to workers village. First proposals for conservation, valorisation and improvement of an interesting architectural settlement example and of a rich history site in Armenia. Scientific Papers of NUACA IV(59):14–28 Google Scholar

Copyright information

© The Author(s), under exclusive license to Springer Nature Switzerland AG 2021

Personalised recommendations